INVESTIGATION:

In a statement to IPRA, Reporting Party Victim [REDACTED] stated that she and [REDACTED] went to the 002nd District after they learned that a "Sgt. Brian" was looking for them. [REDACTED] was questioned briefly by two unknown male detectives and was then taken to the Area 2 Detective Division at 111th Street. While there, two detectives, now known as Det. Brian Forberg #21249 and Det. Kevin Eberle #20817, took [REDACTED] into a room and began to question her as to what she was doing in the area of 21st W. 75th Place. [REDACTED] responded that she lives in the area and did not know what they were asking her about. [REDACTED] stated that she began to feel sick and was using her inhaler. [REDACTED] complained that she was asthmatic and she recently had her appendix removed and her intestine repaired, and that she had eaten only half of a sandwich. [REDACTED] was allowed to use the washroom and was placed back in the room. The detectives returned to the room and began to question her again. [REDACTED] stated that she began to have shortness of breath and asked for help. The detectives left the room and shut the door.

[REDACTED] stated that 15 minutes passed and no one came to help her. She began getting weaker and was about to pass out. [REDACTED] called 911 with her cellular phone and asked for an ambulance. The dispatcher asked to speak to an officer after [REDACTED] informed the dispatcher that she was at the police station. [REDACTED] called on the officers and the detectives came in the room. One of the detectives took the phone out of her hand and pulled her hat off her head. The detective then pulled [REDACTED] hair and pulled her by her purse. [REDACTED] stated that the detective accused her of attempting to commit suicide, shoved a table into her and called her a "cunt ass." [REDACTED] stated that one of the detectives lit up two cigarettes and blew the smoke in her face twice. A few minutes later, the paramedics arrived and asked the detectives if she was under arrest. They responded that [REDACTED] was not under arrest. [REDACTED] stated that the paramedics took her to Roseland Community Hospital. After 30 minutes without getting any medical attention, she called her sister who came and took her to Christ Hospital. [REDACTED] stated that she saw a doctor at Christ Hospital and was given some anxiety medication. [REDACTED] added that she did not attempt to hurt herself or commit suicide while at the police station. (Att. 18)

In a To/From report, the R/I spoke to [REDACTED] who stated that he was transported to Area 2 Detective Division along with [REDACTED] for questioning in regards to one of his friends' vehicle that may have been involved in a shooting. [REDACTED] stated that he and [REDACTED] were questioned in separate rooms. [REDACTED] stated that after being released, he was informed that [REDACTED] was taken to Roseland Community Hospital. He proceeded to Roseland Community Hospital and learned that [REDACTED] had gone to Christ Hospital. [REDACTED] stated that when he saw [REDACTED] she informed him that one of the detectives had "rammed" her with a table and pulled her purse from around her neck. [REDACTED] did not observe any injury to [REDACTED] and did not observe any officer abuse [REDACTED] (Att. 21)

Medical Records from Advocate Christ Medical Center indicated that [REDACTED] was present at the Emergency Room on 30 March 2012, at 04:11 hours, with stress and anxiety after being questioned in the police station. She complained of pain all over. She was diagnosed [REDACTED] (Att. 28)

Medical Records from Roseland Community Hospital indicated that no treatment was provided to [REDACTED] on or about 30 March 2012. (Att. 29)

A Chicago Fire Department Ambulance Report indicated that [REDACTED] was found in an interview room with CPD, and complained of abdominal and chest pains which she described as lower right side of abdomen going up to chest area. [REDACTED] was given patient care and taken to the hospital ER. [REDACTED] case type was classified as asthma attack. (Att. 09)

Office of Emergency Management and Communication (OEMC) Records indicated that a 44-year-old female at the police station with chest pains was calling for Emergency Medical Service. It listed "727 E. 111th Street" as the address of occurrence. (Att. 07)

A Case Supplementary Report under RD# [REDACTED] relates that Detectives Forberg and Eberle interviewed [REDACTED] at Area 2 regarding a homicide investigation that occurred at 14th W. 79th St. on 29 March 2012 at approximately 1800 hours. The detectives confronted [REDACTED] about the offenders entering the vehicle that she was driving at the time to make good their flight. [REDACTED] became hostile and replied that she was not in the area at the time of the shooting. [REDACTED] insisted that she did not lend the car to anybody at any time. [REDACTED] began to complain of chest pains and shortness of breath. The interview was terminated and a CFD ambulance responded to the area and [REDACTED] was transported to Roseland Hospital for treatment. (Att. 49)

In a To-From-Subject-Report, accused Det. Brian Forberg #21249, stated that he briefly interviewed [REDACTED] regarding the [REDACTED] homicide investigation. [REDACTED] requested medical attention.
